

Times of 1st August 1901

Standard do.

Daily Telegraph do.

That they had also settled the Particulars and Conditions of the Competition, which were as follows:—

1. The Competition is open only to British born subjects.
2. The Composition must be for full Orchestral Band and capable of effective arrangement for a Military Band, Pianoforte and Organ.
3. A reduction for the Pianoforte from the full score must accompany the Composition.
4. All Manuscripts must be inscribed with a Motto, and be accompanied by a sealed Envelope also bearing the Motto, and containing the Composer's name and address.
5. The Manuscripts and Envelopes ^{unopened} of the unaccepted Compositions, will be returned on application.
6. Manuscripts to be sent to Mr J. J. Sheehy, Clerk to the Company, 35 Bedford Row London W.C., on or before the 1st of

Whereupon That

The Master
That Jones
Court

The death reported