

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at Guildhall London on Wednesday the 28th day of March 1804.

Present — Mr. Ashley — Master
Mr. Rutter }
Mr. Williams } Wardens
& Mr. Wadd.

The Committee examined the Account delivered at the last Court by Mr. Temple for the Company's Sittings at Guildhall from January 1800 to October 1803 and find that the sum of £12⁰ is due to the City of London thereon besides the usual Gratuity of half a Guinea ^{per Annum} to the said Mr.
Temple as Hallkeeper and 10⁰ to his Assistant for the said four Years, making in the whole £14⁰ 6⁰.

They then proceeded to examine the List of the Yeomanry of this Company and selected those whom they thought proper to be summoned to take up their Livery and directed the Clerk to write to them accordingly.

The Committee was informed that Mr. Edward Brown who was admitted to the Freedom of this Company on the 19th day of March 1771 — has refused to take up his Livery alledging that he will not comply without being compelled he having been admitted to the Freedom of the Apothecary's Company.
