

accounts for 1923 which he had had certified by his own Accountant, Mr. W. H. Bernard, F. C. A., at his own expense.

The Accounts were unanimously received and adopted and the Treasurer was heartily thanked for his services and also for having had the accounts certified by a Chartered Accountant.

Past Master H. G. de LaFontaine again raised the question of the amount of fines paid by the Master and Wardens on taking office and gave notice of his intention to bring this matter before the Court at its next meeting.

The costs charged by Messrs. King & Brymer for the Court and Livery Dinners was discussed at some length and provided that no objection was raised by the Stationers Company to the employment of other caterers, the Clerk was instructed to make enquiries with a view to obtaining some reduction in the price of the dinners.

The scheme proposed by Mr. W. W. Cobbett for the presentation of his medal for Chamber Music was further discussed but as no formal Report on the subject had been presented it was arranged that it should stand over until the next Court when a concise scheme could be formulated.

The following Report from the Examiners at the recent Carnegie and Palmer Scholarships was read and approved:
