

Treasurer it was resolved to subscribe £5:5/-

Apprentices.

The following return compiled by the Clerk showing what part the Company's Apprentices were taking in Military service on account of the War was read and was ordered to be entered on the Minutes

Name of Apprentice	Master	Military service undertaken
Eric Adrian Charles Deschamps Chamier	Capt ⁿ A. C. Chamier	2 nd Lieutenant 3 rd Battalion Lincolnshire Regiment, Stationed at Grimsby
Ivor Davidson Southgate	Alderman Sir E. Cooper	University and Public Schools Corps
Eric Leigh Williams	D ^r E. Markham Lee	Enrolled in Australia and likely to come over with a later Contingent
Robert Julian Yeatman	A. F. Hill	Only 17 Sergeant in Marlborough C.I.C. anxious to obtain Commission as soon as possible
John Sebastian Morley	J. M. Levien	Only 17 and not yet joined any Military force
William Longstaffe Fenwick	Alderman Sir E. Cooper	1 st Lieutenant 3 rd Battalion Lincolnshire Regiment at the Front with 1 st Battalion
Cedric John Southgate	C. B. Edgar	University and Public School Corps
Geoffrey Hawkes	W. P. Fuller	Commission in 9 th (Service) Battalion Duke of Wellingtons Regiment, now at Wool Camp Dorset preparing to go to Front.
Ralph Hawkes	Oliver Hawkes	Only 16 Sergeant in C.I.C. at Clifton College.
Robert Archibald Starling	D ^r Geo. J. Bennett	Only 17 and not yet joined any Military force

Marching Song.

A letter was read from C. W. Faulkner L^{td} asking for permission to print the words of Sir Edward Elgar's Marching Song "Follow the Colours" on a postcard and the necessary permission was given.

Sir Frederick Bridge said that the Marching Song had been sung at a large Com suggested was room

the Clerk

The

The Wor

Messrs J

Messrs J

30th

M^r Jon

Messrs J

M^r John

Sir Hu

Clerk's

D^r G

Beadle

202