

Croft was unveiled by Her Royal Highness The Princess Christian. Mr Crews then formally presented it to the Abbey on behalf of the Company and the Dean gratefully accepted the gift on behalf of himself and the Chapter of the Abbey.

The Procession to unveil the Bust proceeded through the Choir and North transept to the North Choir Aisle in the following order

The Clergy of the Abbey

H. R. H. The Princess Christian escorted by the Dean

H. R. H. The Princess Louise Augusta of Schleswig-Holstein

A Lady and Gentleman in Attendance

Sir Frederick Bridge M. V. O., M. A., Mus. Doc

The Company's Beadle

The Acting Master

The Wardens

C. J. D. Crews Esq.

The Clerk

The Treasurer

T. C. Fenwick Esq.

J. C. Colland Esq.

The eight distinguished Musicians above mentioned walking 2 abreast

After the unveiling ceremony the Procession returned to their seats in the same order and the service proceeded

The Company's Procession returned through the Nave to the Jerusalem Chamber at the conclusion of the service in the same order in which it entered the Abbey

Such of the Members of the Company as had their own Gowns and hoods wore them, and livery gowns were provided for the use of the other members and the distinguished Musicians all wore their robes.

The members of the Company wore their badges