

to his recollection this privilege would only attach to a member of the Court and not to a Liveryman. Past Master Sir Fredk Bridge also objected to members of the Livery taking precedence of members of the Court on account of bringing distinguished visitors but on it being put to the vote the Minutes were passed and confirmed as correct and signed by the Master.

The Company's Gold Medal

The Clerk reported that the presentation of the Company's Gold Medal to the King had taken place on the 23rd March last and on the proposition of J. M. Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by the Treasurer the whole of the proceedings in connection with the presentation of the Gold Medal were ordered to be entered on the Minutes. The following is a copy:-
