

members a small profit should result. They would not I imagine cost much more than 5/- a piece for the first 100 and they might be issued at 10/-^d

May I ask you to be so good as to lay this suggestion before the Court?

I am, dear Sir

Yours faithfully

A. C. Chamber

J. C. Fenwick Esq

Clerk to the Worshipful Company of Musicians

Mr. Lescher moved that the idea should not be acceded to but Sir Homewood Crawford pointed out that the Vintners had such a Badge and Mr. Hill stated that formerly most Companies had Badges and said he entirely approved of the idea. Mr. Hering was of opinion that the Badges should be confined to Past Masters as before. Mr. Hadden approved of the idea and suggested that a small Committee be appointed to consider the question

This was seconded by Mr. Hill and Mr. Lescher accordingly withdrew his Motion and the following Committee was appointed viz The Master The Wardens The Rev. R. H. Hadden and Mr. A. F. Hill

Warming Stationers Hall The Clerk reported the particulars he had obtained from the Clerk of the Girdlers Company with a view to warming the large Hall by electric radiators and Sir Homewood Crawford said that he had handed the particulars to Alderman Sir George Hyatt Fuscott and that the Court of the Stationers Company were now considering the matter

Sivery Club. Mr. C. D. Hoblyn moved that a sum of money be voted by the