M^r. Andrew
Carnegie

A letter was read from M^r. Carnegie's Secretary to M^r. Lescher stating that M^r. Andrew Carnegie was much impressed with the wonderful working at the Musicians' Guild and enquiring what M^r. Lescher would do for the Musicians' Guild if he had £1000 or so to give, together with a copy of M^r. Lescher's reply (written after consultation with various Members of the Court) suggesting that he thought the best plan would be to devote the interest on any such fund towards offering prizes to younger students rather than in the giving of Scholarships and after discussion it was on the proposition of the Senior

Warden seconded
"That the
"Carnegie's
"Company
"request be
"M^r. Carnegie
