

Royal Surrey
Theatre

Mr Leslie stated that he had guaranteed the Operas being presented by Messrs Hill & Fairbairn at the Royal Surrey Theatre at cheap prices to the extent of £1,000 as he thought they were in the interest of music for the masses. He further stated that the Lord Mayor had promised to attend at the Royal Surrey Theatre on the afternoon of Saturday the 27th March and make a speech from the stage in the interest of music and to announce that £1,000 had been guaranteed and he wished it to appear that this £1,000 had emanated from the Company.

The matter was discussed at length and it was pointed out by the Treasurer and others that the Company must not do anything which would involve them in financial liability and Mr Leslie said he quite appreciated this and would himself supply any necessary funds to comply with his guarantee.

The Company's
Gold Medal

Post Master Sir Hornwood Crawford stated that the King had appointed the 23rd March at 11 a.m. for the Deputation to attend at Buckingham Palace to present him with the Gold Medal and the necessary final arrangements were made
