

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the Queen's arms Tavern in Saint Pauls Church Yard on Tuesday the 22^d day of June 1779.

Present

M^r. Salter, Master
M^r. Williams } Wardens
M^r. Holders }
M^r. Jackson
M^r. Keating
M^r. Gibson

The Committee proceeded to examine the Freedom Book of this Company and Ordered 20 of the Livery to be Summoned to pay their Steward's Fine and 30 of the Yeomanry to pay their Livery-fine, according to a List drawn out by them and entered in the Rough Minute Book.

The Master appointed the next Court to be held at the Half Moon Tavern in Cheapside on Thursday the 15th day of July 1779, which is likewise fixed for the Annual Stewards Feast.