

unanimously decided to invite Mr. George Arthur Wales Beard to fill the same, and failing his acceptance then to invite Mr. Charles Harry Allen Gill, and failing his acceptance, Mr. Jocelyn William John Boocoy.

Company's Silver Medal.

The Guildhall
 School of Music.

The Royal Naval
 School of Music.

The Royal Military
 School of Music.

Trinity College of Music (Triennial).

The names of Mr. John Turner the student nominated by the Principal of the Guildhall School of Music and of Bandmaster Sam Rhodes, A.R.C.M., 1st Bn Royal Scots, the student nominated by the Commandant of the Royal Military School of Music were approved and the Clerk was directed to accept the name of the student to be nominated by the Superintendent of the Royal Naval School of Music later on.

The question as to the presentation of the Company's Medal to Trinity College of Music was discussed at some length and in the absence of the old Minute Book it was resolved that the question be left in the hands of the Master to decide whether or not it had been resolved in 1923 that the medal was to be permanently presented to Trinity College of Music (Triennially) or for that year only.

(N.B. On reference to the Minute of the 10th July 1923 it is quite clear that the Court then decided by a large majority that Trinity College of Music should be once more added to the list of Musical Institutions qualified to recommend medalists for the Company.

Distinguished Guests

On the proposition of P. M. Hill seconded by Sir James Malcolm it was decided to invite Mr. Robert Mayer as the distinguished Amateur Musician to the Livery Banquet in October and failing him Mr. Richard Northcott.

And on the proposition of P. M. Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Dr. G. J. Bennett it was decided to invite Sir Henry Howard, Mus. Doc. the conductor of the Sheffield Choir as the distinguished professional Musician and failing him Sir Herbert Brewer the