

Allen of New College, Oxford, and on the proposition of Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Sir Frederick Bridge it was resolved to invite the Right Hon. The Earl of Shaftesbury as the distinguished Amateur Musician and failing him Sir Alexander Kennedy.

Ernest Palmer
Scholarships

The following report of the Examiners for the Ernest Palmer Scholarship for girls under 18 years of age was read

The Guildhall School of Music

Victoria Embankment E.C.

June 26th 1913

To The Court of the Musicians Company
Gentlemen,

We have examined six girls and one boy for the "Ernest Palmer" Scholarship and unanimously recommend that it be awarded to Miss Ivy Rose Georgina Blenheim who is a good performer, a good sight reader, and a promising and intelligent student. We also highly commend Miss Constance Amelia Evans and consider that Miss D. L. P. Chitty deserves commendation, the two last named being good sight readers and satisfactory performers.

E. Markham Lee
Stanley Hawley
F. Harold Hankins
Landon Ronald

and the selection of Miss Ivy Rose Georgina Blenheim was approved.

The following Report of the Examiners with reference to the Ernest Palmer Scholarship for Ex-Choristers of St. Paul's Cathedral was also read.

We, the Examiners appointed to examine the Candidates for the Ernest Palmer Scholarship, beg to state that James Francis Basil Adkins, of 23 Fishergate Hill Preston, who submitted himself as a Candidate for the said Scholarship, was not of a sufficient standard of excellence to justify us in awarding him the same.