Sir G. Wyatts
Bart. and Lieut.
F. G. Truscott

A letter was read from the Master, Alderman Sir George Wyatt Truscott Bart. regretting that he did not feel equal to taking the Chair as his Son Lieutenant Francis George Truscott of the Suffolk Regiment, attached to the Royal Flying Corps, had been killed in action on Good Friday. Sir Homewood Crawford stated that Lieut. Truscott had ~~won~~ the cordial approval of his Commanding Officer and had left a most creditable reputation behind him and on the proposition of the acting Master seconded by Past Master Lescher a sincere vote of sympathy and condolence was passed with the Master and Lady Truscott in their irreparable loss, the members of the Court upstanding.

The Minutes and Proceedings of the Court held on the 25th January last were read and confirmed
