Finchley. N. 3.

Dear Sir,

Mr W.W. Cobbett informs me that you have been nominated by Sir Hugh P. Allen, as this year's recipient of the Company's Cobbett Medal for Chamber Music, and the same will be presented to you by the Master after the Dinner, following the Court Meeting, on the 20th April next.

I accordingly have pleasure in enclosing a formal Invitation to the Dinner.

I have asked Mr Cobbett to arrange a programme of Chamber Music, interspersed with at least two songs, to be performed after the Dinner, which he has promised to do, I understand, in collaboration with yourself.

It is usual for one of the Company's Graces to be sung after the Dinner, and perhaps you will speak to Mr Cobbett about this, but if there is any difficulty as to this, it need not be done.

Yours faithfully,

T. C. Fenwick

clerk.
