

then that Sir William Howdsworth Bart. and D^r Mann of Kings College Cambridge should be invited

Mr Lewis Hill

The Reverend R. H. Hadden suggested that the Honorary Freedom of the Company should be conferred on Mr Lewis Hill in recognition of what she had done for Music

The Master supported the Motion and stated that Mr Lewis Hill had given £17500 to the Royal Academy of Music and Mr Hill said there was a precedent for bestowing the Freedom on a Lady and after discussion it was decided on the proposition of the Reverend R. H. Hadden seconded by Sir Homewood Crawford that the Master be authorised to ascertain if Mr Lewis Hill would be willing to accept the Honorary Freedom of the Company

The Company's

Silver Medal

On the proposition of the Master seconded by Sir Frederick Bridge it was resolved that the Company's Silver Medal for the present year should be bestowed on Mr James Fiskin Composition Scholar and Pianist the Pupil recommended by Sir Hubert Parry Bart the Director of the Royal College of Music and the Winner of one of the extra prizes in the Cobbett Prize Competition

Music received from Fiskingers Company

Mr A. F. Hill reported that the music in question had been inspected and was found to be of a popular description and of small value and it was left to the Clerk to deal with it as he thought fit

Window in

Southwark Cathedral

Mr G. J. D. Crews stated it was his intention to erect a Window in the Lady Chapel of the Cathedral Church of St Saviour Southwark the subject to be St Cecilia the Patron Saint of Music and he asked the leave of the Court to present the Window in the name of the Company

Mr Crews said that the Lady Chapel in question was particularly