

Vacancies
on Court

The question of filling the two vacancies on the Court were discussed and M<sup>r</sup> Edgar suggested that the matter should stand over until the next Court.

Sir Edward Cooper proposed that Sir George Clement Martin M.F.O, Mus. Doc, should be elected a Member of the Court and this was seconded by M<sup>r</sup> Hunter and supported by M<sup>r</sup> Hill.

Sir Homewood Crawford stated he had reason to believe that M<sup>r</sup> Robert Edmund Brandt F.S.A, who had in 1907 for family reasons been obliged to refuse a seat on the Court would now be willing to accept and urged that it would be advisable to add both Sir George Martin and M<sup>r</sup> Brandt to the Court

M<sup>r</sup> Edgar proposed as an amendment that the matter should stand over for further consideration and this was seconded by M<sup>r</sup> Lescher.

Sir George Truscott urged unanimity in the election and M<sup>r</sup> Edgar accordingly withdrew his amendment and it was proposed by Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Sir Edward Cooper and unanimously resolved that M<sup>r</sup> Robert Edmund Brandt and Sir George Martin M.F.O, Mus. Doc, should be ~~appointed~~ elected <sup>(subject to their consent)</sup> to seats upon the Court which would complete its full number.

Apprentice.

The Clerk reported the apprenticing of Geoffrey Trevor Burnett Brown a Son of M<sup>r</sup> Alexander Burnett Brown a Member of the Court, to Sir Frederick Bridge for 5 years in the Art of Organ playing.
