

the Maske of 'The Golden Tree'

This was seconded by Mr T. L. Southgate and carried unanimously

Apprenticeship of Edwin Charles Hodgkins

The Clerk reported that Edwin Charles Hodgkins a Son of Mr Edwin Marriott Hodgkins of 17 Portland Place W. who had that evening been elected a Member of the Company was on the 10th inst. apprenticed to Mr Arthur Frederick Hill a Member of the Court for Four years in the Art of Violin Playing thus reviving a custom which had been in abeyance since 1877

Cobbett Musical Competition

Mr T. L. Southgate reported the steps taken by the Committee with reference to the Prize of Fifty Guineas offered by Mr W. W. Cobbett and stated that a second Prize of £10 had been presented by the Master and a special Prize of £10 by Mr Hermann Sternberg a Member of the Company, to the competitor whose work afforded in the opinion of the Judges the best example of an Art form suited for a short piece of Chamber music with strings. Mr Southgate further stated that Consolation Prizes would be given from a Donors Fund provided by the following Members of the Company viz:-

W. H. Ash J. P., Sir Frederick Bridge M. V. O. Mus. Doc. R. E. Bramble

W. W. Cobbett, J. C. Collard, E. E. Cooper, Sir Homewood Crawford, W. H.

Cummings, Mus. Doc., Clifford B. Edgar, J. P. Mus. Bac., A. F. Hill,

H. S. Hoyle, Mus. Doc., E. Markham Lee, Mus. Doc., F. Harwood

Lescher, W. H. P. Leslie, T. Mainwaring, E. W. Nicholls, J. B. Orgell, Esq.

Kube, R. Kemmerley Rumbold, Colonel T. B. Shaw-Hellier J. P., T. L.

Southgate and H. Sternberg

Mr Southgate also stated that a circular had been got out and that many applications for the same had already been received by the Clerk

Music Loan
Cathedral

Mr H. H. Harts
Prize Compositions

Guildhall School of Music and 15 great was publ

them
The Fifty
and Fedor
his Mess
A. B
Mr Clerk
Bread
Mr Clerk