re S Ernest Palmer Scholarships

We have heard the candidates for the above Scholarships and submit the following report for your consideration:-

The boy, Henry Stanley Taylor, seemed most promising, and well worthy of a Scholarship

The two girls were neither of them up to the standard required. Cicely Mary Smith is only 14; it would be necessary to wait until she was 16 or 17 and see if her voice developed enough to be worth having. At present, to award a Singing Scholarship would be inadvisable

Elsie Muriel Symmons gave no evidence of either voice or special musical abilities

We however think so well of Henry Stanley Taylor's gifts, that we advise that a Scholarship of greater value be awarded to him, so that he could have a more complete musical education i.e. longer lessons and under more expensive Masters than the sum of £23. 0. 0 would allow

A complete curriculum such as is suggested would cost about £40. 0. 0
