Sir. Delahaye Street 16. Oct. 1795.

Duly sensible of the attention I have ever received from the Masters Wardens and Worshipful Company of Musicians I beg you will express to them my grateful Acknowledgments and particularly for their marked Goodness in re-electing me an Assistant of their very respectable Company when absent on the public Service.

I am Sir Your humble Servant
Brook Watson

Mr. Tho. Whittell
Clerk to the Worshipful
Company of Musicians.

On the petition of John Johnson and Mark Shotten. Freeman, voted to each of them half a Guinea, but at the same time informed them the Company had no fund for the Relief of Freeman only who had not paid their Fines.
