That the best thanks of this Court be given and are hereby tendered to the worthy Master Thomas Rowett Jones Esq for the promptitude with which he undertook and the efficiency which he displayed in representing the Musicians Company on the grand opening day of the International Exhibition — when without time being given him in consequence of the short notice afforded to call a special Meeting of the Court he made arrangements to present himself in Liver Gown and attended by the Beadle of the Company bearing Banner and Mace accompanied the other City Companies in procession round the Building and the Albert Hall
