

company if they would do him the honour of accepting it.

On the proposition of P. M. Chamier, seconded by P. M. Hill, a cordial vote of thanks to the Senior Warden was passed and the model was handed to the Clerk for safe custody.

It was suggested that as the Violin was not inscribed, a permanent note should be made of its record; and the Senior Warden offered to ascertain the date of the original presentation to Lady Stalle and to discuss with the Clerk the possibility of putting a small plaque on the wooden case.

Boblett
Medal for Chamber Music

The Senior Warden stated that Sir Hugh Allen had nominated Sir Edward Elgar as the recipient of the Boblett Medal for Chamber Music, and that Sir Edward Elgar would be asked to attend the Court Dinner on Tuesday, April 24th next, to receive the award.

Boblett
Medal

The Senior Warden suggested that the Boblett Medal for Chamber Music might in future be struck in gold, and he asked permission of the Court to endow the extra cost, which was estimated at £6<sup>15</sup>·0 per annum, representing probably a capital sum of £170.

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by the Junior Warden, a cordial vote of thanks was returned to the Senior Warden for his offer which was accepted; and it was decided that the capital fund be invested in long dated securities such as Consols.

The Company's Bankers

On the proposition of the Junior Warden, seconded by P. M. Hoare, it was resolved that for the convenience of the Company's business the Company's general account, trust account, benevolent fund account and deposit accounts at the Westminster Bank Ltd., Berners Street Branch, be closed and that similar accounts
