

Most Gracious Majesty the Queen and the Royal Family have sustained by the lamented decease of His late Royal Highness the Prince Consort whose lively and constant interest in all subjects connected with the Fine Arts and especially for his unvaried solicitude to promote the cultivation of the High and Ennobling Art for the advancement of which this Ancient Company was by Royal Charter incorporated and to elevate and improve the tastes and intellectual pursuits of the people have endeared his Memory to them.

Ordered.

That the foregoing Resolution be fairly transcribed signed by the Clerk of the Company and be forwarded to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department. - F. A. H. France Clerk
 Guildhall, London.
