

Sir Frederick Bridge thought it would be a pity to alter the present arrangements but Sir Homewood Crawford supported the Master's view and after discussion the matter was referred to a Committee to consist of the following viz The Master Warden Immediate Past Master Professor Sir Frederick Bridge and Sir Homewood Crawford who were to report to the Court at their next Meeting

Masters Medal

The Master asked if it was the intention of the Court to discontinue the practice of presenting to the retiring Master a small Silver Medal of the Company as used to be done before the institution of Badges and suggested that the custom should be revived and this was agreed to and the Clerk was instructed to obtain Silver Medals for such of the Past Masters as had not received them

The Rev. Robinson

Duckworth D.D.
C.V.C.

A letter was read from Miss G. E. Troutbeck thanking the Court for their vote of condolence

A letter was also read from Mr John Troutbeck (who was admitted to the Society later in the evening) asking if the Court would accept a Silver Bowl which belonged to his Uncle the late Canon Duckworth to whom it had been given on his leaving St. Marks Hamilton Terrace by Mr G. D. Hoblyn and his family

The Clerk reported that by the instructions of the Master and Immediate Past Master he had written Mr Troutbeck that he was sure the Bowl would be gratefully accepted and his action was cordially approved

NB. The Bowl was subsequently presented by Mr John Troutbeck who was thanked by the Master for his kind and interesting gift
The Bowl bears the following inscription

The Rev. Robinson
in his from Charles in grateful Presented
The
By
The Treasurer Mr singing of "His a Jelly" undignified and vulgar prevents a repetition of such and after discussion it was Members of the Society who that the Court disapproved Sir Frederick Bridge Alastair Wesley and asked the necessary expense which the Master Warden Immediate and Dr. Lea Southgate was The Clerk was instructed reduction of the Maque in West The Senior Warden questioned most economical to get the The Treasurer was of opinion having shown better and at Treasurer to report as to the Annual Account was presented The Treasurer presented