

10th July 1919.

Gentlemen,

We held a Preliminary Examination of twenty two candidates for the Sir Ernest Palmer and Carnegie Scholarships, and four candidates were selected for the Final Examination.

We desire to recommend Charles Kenneth Turner for the award of the Carnegie Scholarship, but regret we are unable to recommend any suitable candidate for the Sir Ernest Palmer Scholarship.

Yours faithfully,

Landon Ronald

Adrian C. Boult

F. Harold Hankins.

It was decided to pay the Company's Examiner Mr Adrian C. Boult a fee of £5: 5/-

Pamphlet of War Works

P.M. Major Chamier reported that there were still certain War Honours to be conferred and requested that the matter might be allowed to stand over until the middle of September which was agreed to.

J. C. Collard deceased

The Clerk reported the commencement of formal Chancery proceedings against the Company in connection with the Estate of the late John Clementi Collard under whose Will the Company had a contingent Reversionary interest in a moiety of the residue of the Estate in the event of the Testator's two elder sons dying without issue, and was instructed to do what was necessary in the matter.
