

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the Baptist Head Coffee House, Aldermanbury on Friday the 22nd Day of June 1804

Present — Mr. Ashley, Masters
Mr. Williams, Wardens
Mr. Wadd Mr. Gough
Mr. Huson

The Committee examined the List of the Yeomanry of this Company and selected the Names of those whom they thought proper to be summoned to take up their Livery and directed the Clerk to write to them accordingly — as follows

The Decease of Mr. John Hardy the late Treasurer having been reported to this Committee and that the Cash Book of this Company is in the hands of Mr. Charles Higden of Curriers Hall It is therefore recommended that the next Court do make an Order for an immediate Application to him for the same.

Ordered that the Clerk do send to Cannonbury House and desire some Person to attend at the Court to be held on the 4th July next at Guildhall to take Directions for the ensuing Livery Dinner
