

Bellmaker, was unanimously elected a member of the Company

J. H. Nicholson
Esq.

On the proposition of the Master seconded by the Senior Warden Mr. Sydney Hugo Nicholson, M.A., Mus. Bac., of 42 Grosvenor Road, S.W.1, the Organist of Westminster Abbey was unanimously elected a member of the Company as a prominent professional musician at the reduced fees

City Freedom
Fees

The Clerk reported that the City Freedom fees had been raised from £1.1.0 to £2.2.0 and it was decided to raise the Livery fines and fees to the same extent

National Library
for the Blind.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the National Library for the Blind asking for a further donation but it was decided, with regret, that no donation could be made on account of the Company's reduced Income through heavy taxation.

J. G. Hollard
Esq.

Correspondence that had passed between the Clerk and Messrs Torr & Co, the Solicitors for the late Mr. J. G. Hollard's Executors with reference to the death of his son Mr. Cecil Clementi Hollard who had purported to exercise the power of appointment given him by his Father's Will over his share of the residue in favor of his widow Mrs. Elouise Leventish Hollard was read, and a letter was also read from P. M. G. L. Hollard stating that he, as a beneficiary, and the Executors of his Father's Will, were prepared to act upon the Opinion of Council which had been obtained and forwarded for consideration.

The Clerk stated that in his view Council's Opinion was quite correct and in this he was supported by a letter from P. M. Sir Home Wood Crewford to whom all the papers had been submitted by the Clerk.

It was unanimously resolved that the Company should accept Council's Opinion as correct and the Clerk was instructed to obtain an Office copy of the late Mr. J. G. Hollard's Will and place it with the other papers relating to the contingent bequest to the Company by Mr. J. G. Hollard in the Company's deed box.

Miss Adelaide S.
Bridge.

A letter was read from Miss Adelaide S. Bridge praying for further relief