

Mr Gough presented a proof Sheet of an intended Book of the Company's Names and By Laws &c. And it was examined and Ordered that 30 of them be printed and handsomely bound and 20 remain unbound until required.

A Vacancy having been declared in the Court of Assistants of this Company. The following Gentlemen were put in nomination to fill up the same

Nominations for Assistants

Mr John Freeman proposed by Mr Williams seconded by Mr Moore

Mr Thomas Bingham by Mr Gough seconded by Mr Gifford

And it was Ordered that it be Ballotted for the next Court Day

[Large decorative flourish]

24 July 1818

George Moore, the late Apprentice of Daniel Heywood Citizen and Musician of London was this day admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Servitude On the Testimony of his late Master And duly sworn &c

£ 20 8.0

At Mr Heywood's Billingsgate