My dear Sir.

15th March 1895

Referring to our conversation today about the Musicians Company I am quite ready to confirm in writing what I said at the last Livery Dinner, viz, that finding Mr. Warrick was not an ambassador from the Court when he saw Mr.
Sheet & myself at Loyds, we are quite willing to withdraw the imputation on the Court, that a promise was given by them on the occasion of Sir John Stainers election.

I am, Dear Sir

Walter Wilkinson Esq:

Yours very truly
E. E. Cooper.
