

Beadle

The Master moved that M^r. Ernest Hills be re-elected Beadle for the ensuing year

Seconded by M^r. Skilbeck and carried unanimously

Increase of Court

The Master stated that it had been decided to increase the number of Assistants on the court from 13 to 16 and suggested that the names of the three oldest Liverymen should be put up for election. The Clerk pointed out that it was not necessary to elect members of the Court who had been longest on the Livery but the senior members of the Livery who in the opinion of the court were the most worthy or suitable

Whereupon the Master moved that M^r. Edward Alfred Webb be elected an Assistant to the court. Seconded by M^r. Skilbeck and carried unanimously

The Master also moved that M^r. Joseph Edward Street be elected an Assistant to the court. Seconded by M^r. Crews and carried unanimously

M^r. Cooper moved that Sir Homewood Crawford be elected an Assistant to the court. Seconded by M^r. Lescher & carried unanimously Confirmation of M^r. Fenwick's election as a Member of the company

The election of M^r. J. L. Fenwick as a member of the Livery was confirmed

M^r. Rube's Loving Cup

The Master reported that M^r. Charles Ernest Rube a Member of the company had presented the company with a very handsome Loving Cup and on the proposition of M^r. Crews seconded by Sir J. F. Bridge

it was unan that the recognition of

The Innovation
Page March Royalties to the comp
the Clerk
for the pay

Company's Records
The
at the guild

Living Clerk
On t of thanks to M^r. Theobald's instead of f written

The for