Letters were read from the Secretary of the Royal Commission and from the Manager of the White Star Line from which it appeared that there was no definite evidence forthcoming that the Band of the S.S. "Titanic" played the "Hymn Tune 'Nearer my God to Thee,'" and under the circumstances the further consideration of the matter was adjourned.

It was decided that the Company's Silver Medal for the year should be bestowed upon M^r Eugène Aynsley Goossens the Student of the Royal College of Music recommended by Sir C. Hubert H. Parry, Bart., the Director, as a brilliant Violinist, a Composer of remarkable scope, a first rate Conductor and leader of the Orchestra at the College.

A letter was read from Colonel Somerville, the Commandant of the Royal Military School of Music recommending Student Horace Edwin Dowell I.R.A.M. of the Royal Garrison Artillery, Portsmouth Division, as being the most talented Pupil for the year and the recommendation was approved.

A letter was read from the Commandant of the Royal Naval School of Music stating that the name of the Student nominated to receive the Medal should be forwarded when the result of an Examination was known and the Clerk was instructed to accept the name when received.

On the proposition of the Master seconded by D^r Southgate it was resolved to invite M^r Edward German as the distinguished Professional Musician to the Livery Banquet in October and failing him to invite Sir Frederick Cowen.
