

recommendation was approved

Trinity College
of Musicians

Sir Frederick Bridge called attention to the work being carried on by Trinity College of Music of which he was now Chairman of the Board and suggested the advisability of including the College in the list of recipients of the Company's Medal and Sir Homewood Crawford gave notice of Motion at the next court.

St Cecilia Celebration.

M^r Hunter drew attention to the fact that St Cecilia Day this year fell on a Sunday and stated that the Livery Club had decided to hold their Commemoration Dinner on Monday the 23rd November and the clerk was instructed to ascertain from the Authorities at St Paul's Cathedral if this would be a convenient date for them to hold the usual Service.

Miss Ida
Freund

The clerk reported that by the instructions of the Master and Wardens he had communicated with the Executors of the Will of the late Miss Ida Freund of Cambridge with regard to a Legacy of £2000 bequeathed by her Will to such Musical Institution or Institutions in England whose objects are charitable as the Executors should determine, and a letter received from M^r W. G. King one of the Executors and the Solicitor to the Estate who happened to be a personal friend of the clerk, was read.

M^r Hill stated he knew M^r King's Co-Executor M^r Gustav Behrens and would communicate with him through the clerk on the subject.

Exhibition by Livery Guilds

A letter from the Lord Mayor was read with reference to the proposed Exhibition of a collection of articles and records illustrating the growth of Civic History and the work of the City Guilds. Sir Homewood Crawford stated that he had attended a meeting of the Committee in his capacity as Master of the Vintners Company, when Honorary Secretaries had been appointed and when it had been decided to invite the Master of every City Company to join the Executive Committee out of which a Working Committee would be

M^r G. R.
Stratton

Honorary
Freemen

Music Trade
Benevolent
Society