Mr. J. C. Collard
Treasurer's Cup

The Treasurer Mr. J. C. Collard presented a large handsome double handled Silver Cup which he said he would like known as "The Treasurer's Cup" so that the names of all subsequent Treasurers might be engraved upon it. He asked leave to commence with the name of his Great Uncle who was Treasurer in 1838 to show the long connection of his family with the Company and this was readily granted and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Deputy Master Mr. Collard was heartily thanked for his handsome gift

The Minutes and Proceedings of the Court held on the 27th October last were read and confirmed

St Cecilia's Celebration
