SINGING FOR SARKOZY

Catherine Hopper was selected to sing La Marseillaise for the French President Nicolas Sarkozy, last month at the Guildhall in the presence of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London. She also sang the 'God Save the Queen' at the end of the evening. Catherine is a Musicians' Company prize winner, and along with Haik Kazazyan performed in a shared recital at Wigmore Hall on Monday, 31 March. The concert played to a packed audience and was a great success. Our congratulations to Catherine and to Haik on their successes, and our good wishes for the future.
