

with him in his anxiety.

Mr. J. W. J. Boosey / Mr. J. M. Merriman / The Clerk reported that neither Mr. J. W. J. Boosey nor Mr. J. M. Merriman was able to accept a seat on the Court.

Sir Jan. Malcolm / The Master exhibited to the Court a silver rose-water dish which he desired to present to the Company. On the motion of P. M. Hill seconded by P. M. Major Chamier it was resolved that the gift be accepted and a very hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Master for his generosity.

The Prime Minister / The Treasurer P. M. A. J. Hill proposed that the presence of the Prime Minister <sup>the Rt. Hon. J. Ramsay MacDonald P. C.</sup> at the Dinner on May 5th should be recorded in the Company's Minutes and the indebtedness of the Company to the Master for bringing this about. The Resolution was carried unanimously.

Collard Fellowship / (Regulations) / The Report of the Committee appointed to draw up Regulations for the Collard Fellowship was received as follows:-

The John Clementi Collard Fellowship in Music

Founded in the year 1931 upon the benefaction of the late John Clementi Collard, Master of the Musicians' Company 1899 to 1900 and 1901. Treasurer 1904 to 1918.

This Fellowship is to be held from time to time by a past or present student (either male or female) from one of the following, namely, the Universities of Oxford Cambridge and London and the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music. Such student must have shown definite ability and excellence in one or more of the higher branches of musical activity, i.e. Composition, Research (historical and critical) and Performance (including conducting)

The Fellowship is of the value of £300 per annum, and is subject to the following regulations as to nomination, election and otherwise.