John Meade Falkner Esq M.A.

The Master presented on behalf of John Meade Falkner Esq M.A. of The Priority House Durham a Liveryman of the Company a very handsome silver gilt Loving Cup being a reproduction of a George II Shapped Irish Cup of 1728 to commemorate the Coronation of King George V and Queen Mary and on the proposition of Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Mr Alfred H. Littleton a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr Meade Falkner for his liberal gift and the Clerk was instructed to notify him accordingly

The following is the inscription on the Cup

"The gift of John Meade Falkner Liveryman of the Musicians Company on the Coronation year 1911" and on the cover is inscribed "Preserve Harmony The Trumpeters and Singers were as one"

Arthur F. Hill Esq. F.S.A.

The Master stated that the first mention of a Hill on the Companys roll was a Richard Hill in the year 1661 and he presented the Company with a very handsome Silver Gilt Porringer and Dish being reproductions of a Charles II Porringer and Dish of that period. On the proposition of Alderman Cooper seconded by the Senior Warden the Master was cordially thanked for his handsome and interesting gift

The Porringer bears the following inscription

"The gift of Arthur Frederick Hill Violin Maker and Master of the Musicians Company 1911-1912"

and the Dish has the following inscription
