Radio Taxis Group Limited

102. Radio Taxis

As Radio Taxis enters its 60th year, having demutualised in 2004 from a taxi drivers co-operative and diversifying into online outsourced consolidated transport management, RTG manages the whole BBC supply of cars, taxis and couriers throughout the country; recently acting as transport manager for the London 2012 Olympics. The world's first CarbonNeutral® taxi company, RTG sponsors the charity Action For Kids.

LIFE MATTERS

103. Lloyd's Register

Lloyd's Register provides independent assurance and expert advice to companies operating high-risk, capital-intensive assets in energy and transportation. The organisation enhances the safety of life, property and the environment by helping clients to ensure the quality construction and operation of critical infrastructure. With insight into the interface between assets, systems, people and processes, Lloyd's helps to make the world a safer place.

104. Modern Livery Companies

To help celebrate the Queens' Diamond Jubilee, today's entry includes a 1953 Dennis-Rolls fire engine and a 1952 Fordson tractor, both of which were serving the community at the time of the Coronation. Walkers represent 26 Livery Companies: Actuaries, Air Pilots, Arbitrators, Art Scholars, Accountants, Architects, Constructors, Educators, Engineers, Environmental Cleaners, Farmers, Firefighters, Fuellers, Furniture Makers, Information Technologists, Insurers, Launderers, Marketers, Secretaries & Administrators, Scientific Instrument Makers, Security Professionals, Surveyors, Tobacco Pipe Makers, Water Conservators and World Traders.

105. Corps of Drums Society

The Society was formed for the preservation of drum, fife and bugle music for the British Army. Its participation in the Show has been long and varied. The uniforms on parade demonstrate that the Society is a composite of existing Corps of Drums and individuals from all walks of life. Keeping this style of music in existence is vital to members.

106. DARE City of London

Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) has been delivering social education in the City of London for more than 15 years. The programme is delivered by City of London police officers and supported by a team consisting of parents, schools, concerned individuals and the business community. DARE is very grateful for the support of Sir John Cass's Foundation, which has provided a generous grant for the second year running towards the cost of the float.

107. Pimlico Plumbers

Pimlico Plumbers is proud to make its seventh consecutive appearance at the Show. The company's distinctive fleet of vans, with plumbing-related number plates, includes two iconic vehicles, a 1951 Fordson and a 1968 Morris Minor, still used for deliveries. Plumbers' sons and daughters perform dance routines.

108. Sir Nicholas Rainton

Grade I-listed Forty Hall & Estate in north London is one of England's finest historic houses. Its participation in today's procession celebrates the investiture of Sir Nicholas Rainton, the Hall's original owner, as Lord Mayor of London in 1632. See paraders in

110. Lions Clubs International

The 900 Lions Clubs in the British Isles and Ireland are part of the largest community service organisation in the world, present in 204 countries and with 1.35 million members. Lions' members provide services and special projects for those in less-fortunate circumstances, including youth, the infirm, elderly and disabled, as well as international sight and humanitarian initiatives.

111. Surbiton Royal British Legion Band

For many members of this youth marching band it will be the first time they have performed at the Lord Mayor's Show.

112. The Royal British Legion

The Royal British Legion stands 'Shoulder to shoulder with all who Serve'. It is one of the nation's leading welfare charities, providing practical care and support for service personnel and their dependents. The Legion is represented today by a marching band, members of the Legion's Riders' Branch, standard bearers and cadets.
