

It is recommended that some honorarium should be presented for distribution among the members of the Genadier Guards Band as an earnest of the thanks due to these players

And it is suggested that at no great expense a concert could be arranged one evening at the Stationers Hall when this music might be played before the Members of the Company and their Ladies. The Prizes won could then be formally presented to the Composers of the several pieces

Sir Homewood Crawford stated that the anonymous donor of the first Prize of 50 guineas was Mr Ernest Palmer and suggested that a sum of £25 should be given to Dr Williams for distribution among his Band. He also suggested that the matter should be referred back to the Committee as to the sale or otherwise dealing with the copyrights in the pieces with plenary powers and after discussion it was Resolved that an honorarium be given at the rate of 10th for each of the 65 performers and that the arrangements as to the suggested concert should be left to the Committee and that the disposal of the copyrights should be referred back to them with plenary powers

The Senior Warden stated that Mess<sup>rs</sup> Chappell & Co had already asked for the refusal of the compositions and that Mr J. H. Hes and Mr Oliver Hawkes both Members of the Company would no doubt be prepared to treat for them

The new Junior Warden Mr A. J. Hill F. S. A. was subsequently added to the Committee
