

stated in his letter to the Clerk of the 23rd October 1917 ~~respect a Royal Charter~~ and a letter of disapproval from Mr. A. G. Hunter was also read.

^(Mr. G. W. Garrett)
The Master said that he had seen Sir E. E. Cooper who had stated that if present, he would not further have opposed the grant of the medal on the present occasion if the Court approved of the nomination. Reference having been made to P. M. Sir Homewood Crawford in Sir E. E. Cooper's letter Sir Homewood made a personal explanation and stated that in his opinion the resolution to grant the medal must take effect but that the question of continuing the medal might be brought up again later on if thought desirable on due notice. It was resolved nem. con. to grant the medal and the recommendation of Dr. G. W. Pearce the Director of Studies of Trinity College of Music of Joseph Coleman a violinist aged 13 as the Company's soloist for the year, was approved.

Stationers Hall

The Clerk reported that the Court of the Worshipful Company of Stationers had agreed to reduce the amount paid for the use of the Hall from £84 to £50, per annum during the War and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Treasurer the Stationers Company were cordially thanked for this concession.

Palmer
Scholarships

The Clerk reported that Sir J. Ernest Palmer, Bart., had given a donation of £8. 10. 0 in augmentation of H. J. Taylor's scholarship and Sir Ernest Palmer was thanked for his further liberality.

Income Tax

The Clerk reported that he was applying for a return of Income Tax in respect of the Company's Trust Funds but that no return was allowed in respect of the Company's corporate Income.

St. Cecilia
Celebration

The Clerk reported that the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's would again welcome the Company at the Cathedral on St. Cecilia's Day and stated that P. M. Hill had kindly undertaken to be responsible for the expense of the full choir - Mr. Hill was thanked for his liberality and it was left with him to arrange as to the
