

Apprentices

The Clerk reported the apprenticing of his Son Melville Collingwood Tenwick of Marlborough College to Mr. G. J. D. Crews in the art of Singing

Master

The Master moved that Mr. Charles Thomas Daniell Crews be re-elected Master for the ensuing year the Senior Warden Mr. Hunter still expressing his wish to stand aside in Mr. Crews favor This was seconded by Mr. Hunter and carried with acclamation and the Master Elect said he accepted the unanimous vote of the Court with the greatest pleasure and would do all he could during his year of office to further the interests of the Company

Mr. A. G. Hunter

Mr. J. G. Collard said that as Mr. Hunter was standing aside he ought not to lose his precedence on the Court but the Master pointed out that a Member of the Court who had not passed the Chair could not properly take precedence of a Member who had passed the Chair and Mr. Hunter said he was quite prepared to accept the position

Senior Warden

Sir Frederick Bridge moved that Dr. Thomas Lea Southgate be elected Senior Warden for the ensuing year Seconded by Mr. F. Harwood Escher and carried unanimously

Junior Warden

Sir Frederick Bridge moved that the Reverend Robert Henry Hadden M.A. be elected Junior Warden for the ensuing year Seconded by Mr. F. Harwood Escher and carried unanimously

The Senior and Junior Wardens briefly returned thanks and the declaration was administered to them by the Clerk

The swearing in of the Master

The Master was authorised to receive the necessary declaration of the new Master out of Court and to install him in office at the Banquet following the Court

Treasurer

Mr. Cooper moved that Mr. John Clementi Collard be re-elected

Treasurer for the ensuing year unanimously

Clerk

Mr. Shellock moved that Mr. Clerk for the ensuing year be re-elected unanimously

Warden

Mr. Cooper moved that Mr. Warden for the ensuing year be re-elected by Mr. A. G. Hunter

Mr. Hunter

Mr. Shellock proposed that Mr. Hunter be thanked for the services he had rendered by Mr. Hoblyn and carried

Mr. Harwood

replied and presented a Silver Gilt Elizabethan Cover and Sir Frederick Bridge moved

Mr. Cooper

for his liberal gift and said that to testify his appreciation of the Members of the Court This was carried with applause

Annual Festival

A letter was read from the People's Palace to give their patronage to the People's Palace near Spring and enquiring if they could see the Master and if they could see the Special Judge of £5.5.0 subject being satisfied as to the desirability with the Festival This was re-elected unanimously