

to the Company at its quarterly Dinners and also to the Livery Club at an annual salary of £5.5.0 and the Committee's Action was approved

Offer of £25 to a Student for a Composition

In the absence of M^r. G. T. Crews, the Master moved the following Resolution

That a sum of £25 (to be given by M^r. Crews) be offered by the Company to a Student or late Student of one of the London Schools of Music who has shown signs of genius to compose a piece of music suitable for performance in public as an illustration of the capabilities of a young English Musician.

This was seconded by the Senior Warden and M^r. Crews offer was gratefully accepted and it was referred to a Committee to consist of the Master M^r. J. Lea Southgate and M^r. A. H. Littleton to carry out the suggestion

46 Novern Square, S.W.

14 December 1905

Dear Sir

It is a widely felt drawback to the dinners of our Company (and also to those of the Livery Club) that we have no means of distinguishing the Members of the Company from the guests

This difficulty is the more apparent now that our numbers have so largely increased and I hope there is little doubt that at future dinners there will always be at least two or three freshly admitted Liverymen appearing for the first time. Their brethren of older standing would be
