

condition that Mr. Grotter, Joyce, who had conducted the Carol Singing, was entrusted with the management of such Concerts. The Master was thanked for his liberality, but it was pointed out that such liberality might impose a tax on future Masters, which would be inconvenient. It was, therefore, decided that the Master's gift should be treated as a donation in recognition of the establishment of Carol Singing in the City and the Clerk was instructed to act accordingly.

Miss Adeline S. Bridge

Further application for relief was received from Miss Adeline S. Bridge, and it was decided to make her another donation of £10.0.0 out of the General Fund.

National Library for the Blind

A letter was read from the National Library for the Blind, asking for a grant in aid of their Extension Fund, but it was resolved, with regret, that no funds were available for the purpose.

Mme Albani

T. M. de Lafontaine stated that Madame Albani was in great financial straits, and enquired if the Company could help her. It was mentioned that a Public Subscription List was contemplated, which it was thought would be largely supported, and the matter was accordingly ordered to stand over for the present.

11 The Avenue Hornsey

The Clerk reported that the Resolution of the 24th April last (ante page 287) to sell the freehold ground rent of £8.8.0 secured upon 11 The Avenue, Hornsey, had not as yet been carried into effect, but that Mrs. Annie Wortman, the recent Purchaser of the leasehold interest, now wished to acquire the freehold for £250, the amount the Lord would be prepared to accept, in addition to all charges, and the Clerk was instructed to act accordingly.

The following Accounts were passed for payment:

ed by the Company
bility of giving a Sing ng too common, and H, the Senior Warden
a scheme, and subma
tion of the Master,
is liberality
P. M. Major A. G.
Eric Pendrell Smith,
Company. The Clerk
with's Great Grandfather and of his Great
the 23rd July 1783,
the Certificates were
ames Bayton, Lt. Col.
ware, S. W. was eno, the Clerk and Singing by Gloyds
which had proved Choir proposed to popularize music in
be passed on in the uch Concerts, on