

Stamp
Duties

The Stamp & Book of Duties paid on Freeman's Admission into the Company was also examined and compared with the several Books and Accounts And it appears thereby that M<sup>r</sup> Glenn's the late Master duly paid the same amounting in the whole to 15/- up to the 24th day of May last.

22nd Novem<sup>r</sup>: 1824

Appre
Cons<sup>rs</sup> Laithjere

William Chappell son of Samuel Chappell of New Bond Street Middlesex Music Seller was this day bound Apprentice to Frederick William Colford Citizen and Musician of London by Indenture for seven years, in consideration of true and faithful service &c.

Bound by the Master.

11/1/4