

Mr Hill produced a design of a Swan he had obtained for the Badge and Mr Hadden suggested that the Company's Crest of a Lyre be used instead of the Swan

Mr Lescher stated that he now entirely approved of the proposed Badge in which the Treasurer concurred

The form of the Badge was discussed and on the proposition of Mr Crews seconded by Mr Lescher it was unanimously resolved that the Badge should take the form of the Swan as it appeared on the Company's Arms as granted by the Herald's College and Mr Hill was requested to get a fresh drawing of such a Badge prepared for the consideration of the Court at their next meeting

Mr W. H.
Ash's Prizes

A letter was read from Mr W. H. Ash J. P. a Liveryman of the Company offering

- (a) A money prize of Fifty Guineas for the best Marching Song words and tune
- (b) A sum of money for a Violin Solo with String accompaniment and
- (c) A prize of £20 to enable a British Composer to publish his work
The Author to be selected by a small Committee of the Company

Mr Hill suggested that it would be desirable to withdraw the Marching Song from open competition and this suggestion was approved and on the proposition of the Master seconded by Mr C. D. Hoblyn a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr Ash for his liberality and a Committee to consist of the Master Messrs A. H. Littleton and Mr A. F.
Hill as representing the Court and Messrs R. Kennerby Rumbold and W. A. Woltmann as representing the Livery were appointed to confer with Mr Ash as to the best methods of carrying out his suggestions and to report
