

1901 beg to report to the Court as follows:-

"It is recommended that a Prize be offered by the Company for an Orchestral March adequate for effective arrangement for the Pianoforte and Organ and which it is hoped might be introduced on various occasions connected with the Coronation of his Majesty King Edward VIII. An Advertisement inviting Competition for such a March to be duly inserted in the Newspapers. The successful Competitor to be awarded a prize of Fifty Guineas and the Honorary Freedom and Livery of the Worshipful Company of Musicians. Such Competition to be open only to British born subjects of his Majesty. The Competitors to send their Compositions under a nom de plume. The Judges to be Sir Frederick Bridge assisted by Sir Walter Parratt and M^r Otto Goldschmidt if they will consent"

The following is the proposed form of Advertisement

"The Master Wardens and Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians