The Committee, upon mature Consideration, are of Opinion that it will not be for the Benefit of this Company to make any Alteration in the Mode of Election of Livery-men or Stewards; but that it will be best to continue the Choice as usual — which they submit to the Determination of the Court.

Ordered that a Book be purchas'd and a separate Account be kept therein of the Poor's-Box Money with a Reference to the several Pages in the Cash-book from whence it is taken.

Order'd that a sufficient Number of Tickets for the Livery-feast be work'd off in Black.

The Master appointed the next Court to be held at the London Tavern on Wednesday the 17th July next.
