

The Master reported that the first Gold Medal of the Company was presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales on Wednesday the 19th July 1893:

Whereupon

Mr. Wilkinson moved

That the whole proceedings be entered on the Minutes and a vote of thanks be given to the Master for the trouble he had taken in connection with the presentation

Seconded by Mr. Skilbeck

Carried unanimously

The ceremony of presentation took place at Marlborough House where the Prince received ^{Professor Bridge} the Master, Sir John Stainer, Messrs. Wilkinson, W. S. Collard, ~~Atty~~ Warrick, Jones, Otto Goldschmidt Alfred Littleton, Street & Hoblyn, and Mr. J. J. Theobald, Clerk.

The Master first called upon the Clerk to read the resolution unanimously adopted at the Court Meeting held on the 18th of April last which was read accordingly.

The Master then explained briefly the circumstances under which the Medal had come into existence and the object of their waiting on the Prince that day.

The Master then handed the Medal to the Prince which was enclosed in a velvet case with a suitable inscription.

The Prince in reply said he wished to return his thanks for the kind words of the resolution and for the gift of the very handsome Medal. He expressed his best wishes for the progress of Music in this Country and said he was much gratified by the
