1st July 1802

* The Court ordered Dinner to be provided by Mr. Sutton at Canoubury House for 100 of the Livery on Monday the 19th instant at 4 o'clock precisely.

* Resolved that great indulgence having been given to Mr. Hardy the late Treasurer to adjust the Accounts between him and this Company - the Committee are directed to proceed agreeably to the order of the 7th day of April last, unless the Balance due to the Company shall be forthwith paid

Ordered that the several Balances of Twenty pounds due from the late Master Mr.
Gough (whose vouchers are in the hands of the late Treasurer Mr. Hardy) also of one hundred and seventeen pounds thirteen shillings and ten pence due from the late Master Mr. Huson be paid into the hands of Mr. Croft the present Master and that he be directed to purchase the sum of One hundred pounds Stock in the Old South Sea Annuities.

Messrs. Gough & Huson accordingly paid over their respective Balances in Open Court.
