Stadden protested that the Court had not been consulted in any way and said he felt very strongly that no important step in this or any other matter should be taken without the consent of the Court and this protest was supported by Mr. J. C. Collard. Mr. Southgate explained that he had communicated with Mr. Carnegie without bringing the matter before the Court as he considered haste was necessary and on the proposition of the Sching Master it was arranged that the matter should stand over for the present
