

chair. He stated that about 80 Ladies and Gentlemen dined, including many representatives of the Press, and that about £100 had been subscribed in consequence of the appeals then made.

The Treasurer stated that the whole cost of the dinner amounting to £167 3s 2d had been paid by Mr. W. H. P. Leslie and moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Leslie for his liberality in the matter. This was seconded by P. M. Sir Homewood Grosford and carried unanimously.

Mr. Walter Damrosch

The Master having reported that as a matter of urgency he had consulted with members of the Court as to the desirability of conferring the Company's Silver Medal upon Mr. Walter Damrosch, Musical Director of the Symphony Society, New York, U.S.A., who was leaving for America at once, and received an expression of cordial appreciation with his suggestion and he had accordingly given instructions for the preparation of the Company's Medal which had been presented to Mr. Damrosch and the Master now asked the Court to confirm his action. After discussion the Master's action was approved.

The Company's Silver Medal

On the proposition of P. M. Edegar, seconded by P. M. Major Chamber it was resolved that no medal of the Company be conferred in future unless previously voted at either an Ordinary Meeting of the Court or at a Meeting specially summoned for the purpose.

Sir Hugh P. Allen

The Clerk reported that a Knighthood had been conferred upon Dr. Hugh Percy Allen, the Director of the Royal College of Music and a Liberman of the Company and on the proposition of the Deputy Master seconded by P. M. Hill a hearty vote of congratulation with Sir Hugh P. Allen was passed.

July Court Dinner

The Deputy Master moved that in future the dinner following the July Court should not be held until further order and this was seconded by the Treasurer. P. M. Sir Fredk. Bridge said he thought it would be a pity to abandon the dinner but the resolution on being put to the meeting was carried.

The Company's Silver Medalist Royal Naval School of Music

The Clerk reported that he had not as yet received the name of the Student