

some of her orchestral compositions have been rehearsed by our principal Orchestra

Lionel Stanton - Carnegie Scholar has great natural ability and is industrious and pains taking His work is very satisfactory

Grace Hawkins - Carnegie Scholar is very talented and is doing excellent work I anticipate great things from her

John Eric Salter - S. Ernest Palmer Scholar works well and is making admirable progress

Edith Mary Harshy - S. Ernest Palmer Scholar. Is diligent and works to the satisfaction of her professors. She has good talent and should do well

William H. Cummings

Principal

To Dr J. L. Southgate

Master of the Musicians Company

Apprentices - The Clerk reported the apprenticing of Arthur Ferdinand Bosworth to Sir Frederick Bridge in the Art of Organ Playing and of Harry Joseph Binshngl to Mr A. H. Littleton in the Art of Singing

The Clerk also reported that in consequence of the death of the late Rev. R. H. Hadden his Apprentice Adrian Cedric Boulton had been turned over to Mr J. G. Colvard and his Apprentice Henry James Boyton had been turned over to Mr A. F. Hill

Treasurers Accounts - The Treasurer presented his Accounts for 1909 a copy of which appears on for 1909 the next page from which it appeared that the record sum of £872.1.0 had been received in fees during the year and that £400 had been invested in Metropolitan Water B. Stock besides the purchase of Wine to the extent of another £200